Dear Robert:

Congratulations on your gubernatorial appointment to the Criminal Justice and Standards Training Commission. That is fantastic news! I want to add my best wishes to the accolades you have been receiving.

I want to commend you on your commitment to public service. I am not only interested in the well being of the business community and the state's economy, but about the success of individual citizens and their career goals.

Best wishes for your continued success.

Sincerely,
